

The Putting Formula: Great Putting=Read + Speed + Line

For so many golfers, reading greens is a mystery when in fact it is something easily definable. Stop guessing how putts will break and learn how to accurately predict how putts will roll.

The Aimpoint Express method is incredibly easy to learn and remarkably accurate. In two hours you will have a system to read basic and double breaking putts. Use the same system Tour Pros around the world are using.

George Connor, PGA has been teaching for 25 years and over the last four years has travelled from Florida to Maine to teach golfers of all abilities this elite green reading system
